The Royal Inscriptions of Sennacherib, King of Assyria (704–681 BC), Part 1

Royal Inscriptions of the Neo-Assyrian Period 3/1

by A. Kirk Grayson and Jamie Novotny

The Royal Inscriptions of Sennacherib, King of Assyria (704–681 BC), Part 1 (Royal Inscriptions of the Neo-Assyrian Period 3/1) provides reliable, up-to-date editions of 38 historical inscriptions of Sennacherib. The texts edited in RINAP 3/1, which comprise approximately one-sixth of the Sennacherib known corpus of inscriptions, were inscribed on clay cylinders, clay prisms, stone tablets, and stone steles from Nineveh, describe his many victories on the battlefield, and record numerous construction projects at Nineveh, including the city's walls and the "Palace without a Rival." Each text edition (with its English translation) is supplied with a brief introduction containing general information, a catalog containing basic information about all exemplars, a commentary containing further technical information and notes, and a comprehensive bibliography.

RINAP 3/1 also includes: (1) a general introduction to the reign of Sennacherib, his military campaigns, his building activities at Nineveh, the corpus of inscriptions, previous studies, and dating and chronology; (2) translations of the relevant passages of several Mesopotamian chronicles and king lists; (3) several photographs of objects inscribed with texts of Sennacherib; (4) indexes of museum and excavation numbers and selected publications; and (5) indexes of proper names (personal names; geographic, ethnic, and tribal names; divine, planet, and star names; gate, palace, temple, and wall names; and object names).

The RINAP Project is under the direction of G. Frame (University of Pennsylvania) and is supported by the National Endowment for the Humanities.
